

STORMS

Duxbury Clipper, Thursday, February 17, 1983

Mattakeesett Court the day after the 1983 blizzard which began last Friday night. The storm resulted in the closing of all banks, the post office, and many stores, although most food stores remained open. The police department was kept busy shuttling nurses to hospitals and nursing homes, residents who were unable to get out, and attending to the in- crease in accidents. The fire department responded to reports of arcing wires and both fire and police departments notified residents whose vehicles prevented the plowing of streets and investigated an explosion which caused a power outage in the town east of Rte. 3A.

Photo by Fran Nichols